Tutoring Experience

Over the past 14 years, I've worked with students from a variety of academic backgrounds, helping them navigate the demands of IB and IGCSE English. I've tutored both Standard and Higher Level students, ensuring they develop strong analytical and literary skills. My students have consistently improved their grades and achieved success in exams.

In addition to tutoring IB English, I have also supported students preparing for A-Level and IGCSE exams. My experience has enabled me to offer targeted support for essay writing, comprehension, and critical analysis. Through personalized tutoring sessions, I have helped students build confidence and achieve academic excellence.

Beyond school-level curriculums, I have provided guidance in creative writing and grammar for students at various levels. My goal is to inspire a love for language and literature, while ensuring that my students are well-prepared for their future academic endeavors.
