Tutoring Experience

With 14 years of experience in tutoring IB Global Politics, I've worked with students across various curriculums, helping them navigate the intricacies of political systems and international affairs. My students have consistently achieved top grades, and I take pride in supporting them through every step of their academic journey.

In addition to IB, I have also taught A-Level Politics and IGCSE Global Studies, providing tailored instruction that helps students grasp difficult concepts. I have supported students in their exam preparation and internal assessments, ensuring that they are well-equipped to tackle their final exams.

Throughout my tutoring career, I've worked with students from different regions in the UAE and beyond. I've built a solid track record of helping students achieve academic excellence through focused one-on-one and group sessions, offering the resources they need to succeed.
