Tutoring Experience

In my 12 years of tutoring, I have helped students master English at all levels, from IB to IGCSE. My approach is tailored to ensure students gain confidence in their ability to analyze texts and express their ideas effectively. I focus on improving both literary analysis and writing, leading students to achieve their academic goals.

Additionally, I have worked closely with students preparing for final exams in various curricula, helping them develop strong writing strategies and a solid understanding of the texts they are studying. Many of my students have successfully gained admission to prestigious universities, excelling in English with top grades.
